

MONDAY, JUNE 11, 2018

2:40 P.M.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: The House will come to order.

In the absence of clergy, let us pause for a moment of silence.

(Whereupon, a moment of silence was observed.)

Visitors are invited to join the members in the Pledge of Allegiance.

(Whereupon, Acting Speaker Aubry led visitors and members in the Pledge of Allegiance.)

A quorum being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of Sunday, June 10th.

Mr. Morelle.

MR. MORELLE: Mr. Speaker, I move to dispense with the further reading of the Journal of Sunday, June 10th, and ask that the same stand approved.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Without objection, so ordered.

Mr. Morelle.

MR. MORELLE: Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Ladies and gentlemen, good afternoon. Before I talk about our schedule for this afternoon, let me note that on this day in 1776, the Continental Congress selected Thomas Jefferson of Virginia, John Adams of Massachusetts, Benjamin Franklin of Pennsylvania, Roger Sherman of Connecticut, and Robert R. Livingston of New York to draft a Declaration of Independence. The Declaration Committee operated from June 11, 1776 until July 5, 1776, the day on which the Declaration was published. I do note that Mr. Gottfried wondered whether or not in the bill drafting world whether they consider June 11th to be Independence Day. I assured him that's probably not the case, but...

Under the heading of "Did You Know," did you know know that Culper Ring was headquartered in Setauket, New York? Located in the 4th Assembly District which is represented by our good friend, Mr. Englebright. The Culper Ring was a group of American spies organized by General George Washington in the summer of 1778 at the height of the Revolutionary War. The Ring proved successful, as it provided General Washington with news of planned attacks and strategies by the British military. A lot of colonial history today, Mr. Speaker.

Let me talk about our modern history, which will be that we make today. We have on our desks a main Calendar and a debate list. After any introductions and housekeeping, we will begin our work this afternoon by consenting the 49 new bills added to the Calendar beginning with Rules Report No. 34, which is on page 4 of the main Calendar. We will also work off the debate list. Members should be aware we will have a number of committee meetings this afternoon. If you are on Codes, Ways and Means and/or Rules, you should be aware of those -- that those committees will be meeting and you should be paying special attention to calls from the desk.

So, Mr. Speaker, if there are any introductions or housekeeping, now would be the appropriate time.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: We will start with housekeeping.

On a motion by Mr. Braunstein, page 21, Calendar No. 80, Bill No. A.1190-A, amendments are received and adopted.

On a motion by Ms. Hooper, page 63, Calendar No. 544, Bill No. A.7711-C, amendments are received and adopted.

And for the purposes of an introduction, Mr. McDonough.

MR. MCDONOUGH: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me the privilege. I have some very special guests here today, members of my family, which are special to me. I would like to introduce them to you. They traveled up from Georgia to be with me for a while, and they wanted to see what I do. And my daughter, who lives -- here they are -- this my granddaughter, Madeline; my daughter, Susan; and that big guy is my grandson, Nick. He's the youngest, but he's going to be the (inaudible) of a giant, I tell him, the way he's -- you know, if I let him back in the Lounge, which I will, then he'll grow another inch.

(Laughter)

But they -- they came up. And one of the remarks they said, Do we have an Assembly in Georgia? And a matter -- they do, and I have met some Assemblymembers from Georgia. But they're here to see if I do anything, and what I do and if I do it right. So please, don't anybody tell them the truth.

(Laughter)

They'll be gone tonight, they won't tell anybody. But, you know, I have a rule: "Fake it till you make it," and I've been carrying that off for 16 years, so...

But I would really much appreciate it if you'd -- if you'd welcome Susan and Madeline and Nick to the Chamber and afford them all the courtesies of the House. Thank you, sir.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Mr. McDonough, Susan, Natalie (sic) and Nick, welcome to the New York State Assembly. We extend to you the privileges of the floor. As family, you always have these privileges. Thank you so very much for joining us. Thank you for making Mr. McDonough a happy man today. It's always a pleasure for us to have family come and visit us. And I can assure you, he's been doing his job. Thank you so very much.

(Applause)

Mr. Dinowitz for an introduction.

MR. DINOWITZ: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We are joined here by a wonderful group from one of my favorite schools, PS 24 in the Bronx. PS 24 is around the corner from me, but more importantly for me, it's the school that my daughter and son graduated from. But we have a great group from PS 24 here today, and I'd just like to acknowledge them. We have the Co-President of PS 24, Laura Moukas; and her daughters, Christina, Stephanie and Samantha. The Co-President of the PA at 24 as well, Diane Salanto and her sons, Dante and Luca; the incoming Co-President, Robert Heisler and his kids, Jonathan and Juliette; as well as Holly Makin and her son, Liam.

So, if you can welcome them, I would most appreciate it.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Mr. Dinowitz, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome these students and PTA leaders and parents from PS 24 in the Bronx to the New York State Assembly, extend to you the privileges of the floor. Hope you have enjoyed your trip to Albany today. I hope that you've had a bit of fun, and enjoy watching the proceedings as today moves on. Thank you so very much. Please always feel welcome to come back, and be safe as you return.

(Applause)

Ms. Walsh.

MS. WALSH: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm pleased to have the boys basketball team from Mekeel Christian Academy -- which is in my district in Scotia, New York -- here joining us today. These young men won their first -- their school's first championship this year. They -- they're the Mekeel Lions, and they defeated Seton Catholic in a 42 to 37 victory to win their school's first-ever championship. And it was on Saturday, March 17th, which happens to be St. Patrick's Day. They've completed their season with a 24 and 3 overall record, which is very impressive. And I had a chance to talk with them earlier and welcome them to the Assembly. The -- the names of the boys are Jordan Jackson, Deonte Holder, Carter Stewart, Cameron Stewart, Daniel McCarty, Gideon Agbo, Alidjah Barcelon, Mike -- Michael Show, Alex Barnhill and Joshua Winfield. We're also joined by head coach Chad Bowman, assistant coaches Mike Show, George Stewart, Christian Collins and Adrian Barcelon.

So would you please join me, Mr. Speaker, in congratulating these men on having achieved the Class B Basketball Championship for 2018.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Ms. Walsh, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome you here to the New York State Assembly. We extend to you the privileges of the floor. To both coaches and players, our congratulations on your first championship as a school, but also that you have become champions yourselves. We hope that extends into the rest of your life, and you will continue to achieve at the high rate you have already done. Thank you so very much for being with us.

(Applause)

Ms. Hooper for an introduction.

(Pause)

Ms. Pheffer Amato for an introduction.

(Pause)

Mr. Ashby for an introduction.

MR. ASHBY: Mr. Speaker, I'm happy to be joined today and to introduce my family. My wife, Kristy; my son, Holden; my daughter, Elika; and my niece, Grace. I would also like to acknowledge that being a veteran, my wife is the spouse of a veteran and has done a tremendous job with our family through two combat deployments, and keeping our family together and has been the linchpin of our success.

So, I would like you to please extend them all the cordialities of the House.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On -- on behalf of your husband and your dad, we certainly welcome you here to the New York State Assembly on behalf of the Speaker and all the members. You are family, you are always welcome here and always accorded the privileges of the floor. We are so pleased that you're here to observe our day and share with your -- your father and your husband. And of course, in a way, he's still serving in combat as he's here and --

(Laughter)

-- we hope it's -- we hope it's a little less dangerous than where's he been, but, no less important for the beginning and the start of this State's great rise. Thank you so very much, and again, you're welcome.

(Applause)

Mr. Smith for an introduction.

MR. SMITH: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to interrupt the proceedings for the purpose of an introduction. I -- I'm so happy today to be joined by my family as well; my wife, Elizabeth; my brother, Tom; my mom and dad, Doug and Jeannette; my mother- and father-in-law, Betty and Jeff; my brother-in-law, Ian, who is a State Trooper; and my sister-in-law, Jess.

So, I'd like to ask -- you know, I -- I want to thank them for supporting me for my entire life, my wife for lending me to the people of this State for a time, and I'd like to ask if you could extend the cordialities of the House. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Mr. Smith, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome -- and we'll call you the "Smith clan" -- here to the New York State Assembly. We extend to you the privileges of the floor as family. And we're also pleased that you have come and joined Mr. Smith here today and were given an opportunity to watch him as we do legislation today. Please know that we are appreciative that you have shared him with us and with the rest of the State. Thank you so very much.

(Applause)

Mr. Mikulin.

MR. MIKULIN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to have an introduction today on the floor. I am very pleased and honored to be here by my support group, or the people that have supported me to get here. I have two of my very good friends; one is Ken Panaro, the other is Richie Weiss. And of course, I have my brother-in-law, Andrew; my mother-in-law, Jean; my sister, Anna; my mother, Carol; my father, John; and last, but not least, my beautiful wife, Corrine.

So please extend the cordialities of the floor.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Mr. Mikulin, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome the -- this family here to the New York State Assembly. We extend to you the privileges of the floor. And, again, our gratitude for sharing him with us and for supporting him so that he can do the great work that is required in this State. Please know that you're always welcome here as family, and you will always have the privileges of the floor. Thank you, and have a great day.

(Applause)

Mr. Fitzpatrick.

MR. FITZPATRICK: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm very happy to introduce a very special young lady from my district, Kylie Quigley. Now, Kylie was born with a congenital heart defect, tetralogy of Fallot with pulmonary atresia, and a subsequent diagnosis of advanced scoliosis, which she is going to have surgery for very shortly. But Kylie had her first open-heart surgery at four months of age, with a second surgery. And as a result of the surgery at a very young age, the advanced scoliosis is a by-product of this. She will have an operation shortly to correct that, and if successful -- and it will be successful -- her doctor says she will actually be three inches taller, which is quite interesting. But she raises awareness for congenital heart defects as a patient herself, and there was a wonderful story in our local paper about her ordeal and how she deals with it. And she leads a very productive and successful young life at age 10. She's very active with the Girl Scouts and the Smithtown Historical Society. So I invited her and her mom, Natalie Worthington, who's seated in the back, to come to the Capitol for a visit. So they took a tour today, and they are going to go over to the Senate and meet our Senator very shortly. But I would ask you to please welcome her and offer all the cordialities of this great House.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Mr. Fitzpatrick, the Speaker and all the members, Kylie and Natalie -- I know you're back there -- we extend to you the privileges of the floor. Certainly, our -- our congratulations on coming here today and engaged in spreading awareness of the condition that you're fighting. We are with you. We're supportive. We will be there. And I'm sure that Mr. Fitzpatrick will continue to be at your side as much as you need. Thank you so very much, Kylie. You're welcome here.

(Applause)

Mr. DiPietro.

MR. DIPIETRO: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for an introduction. My -- it's the once -- once-a-year trek for my wife, Theresa, and my lovely daughter, Ava, who has been -- who was a lot smaller when she was five and coming up. And this is the light of my life here. These are the two that make my whole world worth living. And when they come up, I smile a little more, I'm probably a little more pleasant. And some people have even suggested that I have them here every day.

(Laughter)

So, if you could give them the cordialities of the House, I would appreciate it.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of your -- your husband and your father, we welcome you here to the New York State Assembly. For the Speaker and all the members, we extend to you the privileges of the floor. We hope that you could come up here every day for the -- for the beam that you put on your -- your father and your husband's face. Thank you so very much. Continue to be supportive. Take care of him, because he needs some caretaking, believe me. Thank you. Thank you so very much.

(Applause)

Mr. Raia.

MR. RAIA: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for the purposes of an introduction. Over the years, you've heard me talk about my Mama, Jo-Ann Raia, who has been Town Clerk from the Town of Huntington. Well, it gives me great pleasure to introduce Olga Murray, who is the Islip Town Clerk since 2012. As we all know, our town clerks are the backbone of our local government. In fact, they're one of the oldest professions in the Bible. I'm not going to mention the other profession that's mentioned. That being said, I -- Olga is always there whenever I have an issue or a problem. It's always our town clerks that we run to, because they really do put the best face on our local government.

So please, I'd like you to extend all the cordialities of the House to our Islip Town Clerk. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Mr. Raia, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome you here to the New York State Assembly, and extend to you the privileges of the floor. And our thanks for the work that you do in making your town better, safer and more efficient. Thank you so very much.

MR. VANEL: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today is a good day in -- in New York. Today we recognize that New York State is the capital of -- of the financial world, and New York State is the financial -- the capital of financial technology policy. This bill is going to put together a task force to study how New York should best review and deal with digital currency and -- and digital spaces in this space. So we're proud to -- to -- to pass a bill to make sure that we put this task force in effect to make sure that New York is leading in financial technology policy.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER D. ROSENTHAL: Mr. Vanel in the affirmative.

Mr. Ra to explain his vote.

MR. RA: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to commend the sponsor for his leadership on this issue. We've been trying to work together on a number of issues affecting technology in this State, and in particular, things like block chain and crypto currency. And we're -- we're behind as a State right now when it comes to these things. Some of the regulations that have been put into effect by the Department of Financial Services are, you know, stifling innovation in the industry and really providing a disincentive for people to do business in New York State. I had the opportunity a few weeks ago to listen in on a panel talking about regulations in -- in this area, and it really was eye-opening to see how negatively some of this is viewed in that industry.

So, I want to commend the sponsor. I look forward to continuing to work with him, and hopefully with our colleagues down the hall, and I cast my vote in the affirmative. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER D. ROSENTHAL: Mr. Ra in the affirmative.

ACTING SPEAKER HYNDMAN: Mr. Santabarbara to explain his vote.

MR. SANTABARBARA: Thank you, Mr. (sic) Speaker. The latest report released by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control shows that about 1 in 59 children in the United States are now being diagnosed with autism. That's up from 1 in 68 in 2012, and the numbers have more than doubled in less than 20 years. The data also revealed that as autism rates continue to climb, a majority of children are not diagnosed until after age four. My son Michael, who will be 17 this year, was not diagnosed until age three. This delay means that many children are not getting the help that they need. Screening is a way to detect autism before the onset of symptoms. By age two, a diagnosis by an experienced professional can now be considered very reliable. To promote and improve the early identification of autism, the American Academy of Pediatrics has published a -- practice guidelines that recommend screening at the age of 18 and 24 months. Despite these guidelines, most pediatric practices do not consistently use the screening. This bill will amend the Public Health Law -- Law here in New York State to provide these essential screenings that follow the current recommended guidelines.

Early treatment of autism can have a significantly positive impact in the health and well-being of children and their families, and I'm pleased to cast my vote in the affirmative.

ACTING SPEAKER HYNDMAN: Mr.

Santabarbara in the affirmative.

And this is important because in New York City it costs almost 25 percent more to install solar panel -- panels on one's roof or on one's property, and this rebate and abatement program -- this abatement will allow for more New York City residents to afford solar panels on their property.

affect -- to help people who are affected by Ebola, and the opportunities that they have to come back to their profession are critical. As we know, there is such a shortage of health care professionals around the world, and the idea that they're willing to take their time to give to others, we should support that.

Mr. Goodell to explain his vote.

MR. GOODELL: Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker, to explain my vote. Most of the time, if an attorney wants to represent an individual that has a claim pending in front of a State or local agency, it's very simple. They -- they are required by our Bar Association rules to have an agreement with their client on the compensation, and once they have that in place they're free to represent the individual. There are some exceptions to that, and one of which is representing a claimant before the Unemployment Compensation Board. In that case, this bill requires the attorney to file their name, business address and telephone number. And I will share with you that their legal fee also has to be approved by the Unemployment Compensation Board even though the legal fee is being paid not by the Unemployment Compensation Board, but by the claimant. This is one more hurdle, making it more difficult for a claimant to obtain legal representation to represent themselves, and for that reason I will be voting no.

Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.
