

MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 2022

3:19 P.M.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: The House will come to order.

The Reverend Donna Elia will offer a prayer.

REVEREND ELIA: Let us pray. God of grace and Glory, receive our gratitude for this day, for the breath we take, and the many blessings You freely give. Thank You for calling this Body to live up to the high ideals of service, commitment, and integrity. Bless them with wisdom and hope as they work to build a more just society for all people, from the greatest to the most humble. Fill each member with courage, humility, and wisdom. Let those who speak often make room for those who have an important word, but are more reticent to speak. Bless and empower all staff people, and thank You for those whose work is often unseen and, yet, contributes to the well-being of the whole. If anyone feels unwell, restore them to good health. If any are weary, strengthen them. If any need a renewed sense of purpose, bestow it upon them. When this legislative Body deals with challenging issues, give them the ability to work strategically and with clarity, intelligence, and justice. And when there are differences of opinion, help them listen to one another and find a way through disagreement to new insight and understanding. You who make peace in high places, make peace in our communities, our State, our nation, and the world. In Your Holy Name we ask it, amen.

MEMBERS: Amen.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Visitors are invited to join the members in the Pledge of Allegiance.

(Whereupon, Acting Speaker Aubry led visitors and members in the Pledge of Allegiance.)

A quorum being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of Sunday, January 30th.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Mr. Speaker, I move that we dispense with the further reading of the Journal from Sunday, January the 30th and ask that the same stand approved.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Without objection, so ordered.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Thank you, Mr.

Speaker, and colleagues. Happy Monday. Today, which is the last day of January, so I do want to, again, share a quote from Dr. King. This one is, "We must come to see that the end we seek as a society at peace with itself, is a society that can live with its conscience."

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, you do have on your desk a main Calendar. You should also be mindful that in the schedule today, we're going to be meeting on the floor our new member, Edward "Eddie" Gibbs. There are 47 new bills on the Calendar, Mr. Speaker. After housekeeping, we're going to take up resolutions on page 3 and then we will start consent with the new bills beginning on page 4 with Calendar No. 310. Majority colleagues should also understand that there will be a need for a Conference immediately following Session in Hearing Room B, and then we will also be checking with our colleagues on the other side of the aisle, Mr. Speaker, to ensure if they have similar needs.

That's the general outline where we're going today. If you have any housekeeping, now will the appropriate time.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. Thank you, Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

On a motion by Ms. Bichotte Hermelyn, page 33, Calendar No. 112, Bill No. A2662, the amendments are received and adopted.

On a motion by Ms. McMahon, on page 36, Calendar No. 132, Bill No. 3913-A, the amendments are received and adopted.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes for the purposes of an introduction.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Mr. Speaker, it was with great honor that I stand before the House to introduce Edward "Eddie" Gibbs. Edward Gibbs was recently elected to represent the 68th Assembly District in Manhattan. His district includes East Harlem, parts of Central Harlem, and the Upper East Side of Manhattan. Under the care of a single mother, Assemblymember Gibbs was born and raised in East Harlem, and he has been involved in NYCHA Tenant Association, Youth Patrol, and become a leader and an advocate in his community. He is the founding member of a number of organizations, including M.A.R.C.H, Making At Risk Children Happy, and H-C-U-C, Harlem Clergy United for Change. During the pandemic, Mr. Gibbs has been a major outreach worker for the "Ready Responders," a group of medical professionals who were responsible for testing all NYCHA residents throughout New York City.

Eddie is the proud father of three children: Edward Jr., Donovan, Ariel, and his pride continues as he also has one granddaughter, Desire. Please join me in welcoming our new colleague, Assemblymember Edward "Eddie" Stokes [sic] to our Chambers.

(Applause)

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Assemblymember, on behalf of the Speaker, the Majority Leader and all the members, we welcome you here to the New York State Assembly. Once an Assemblyperson, always a member of this family. We hope that you will enjoy your time here and know that if we were in regular times, this House would have stood in its full breath to welcome you as a new member and a new brother to us all. Thank you again so much, and good luck on your service. Thank you.

(Applause)

Page 3, resolution, the Clerk will read.

THE CLERK: Assembly Resolution No. 520, Mr. Epstein.

Legislative Resolution memorializing Governor Andrew -- I'm sorry, Kathy Hochul to proclaim January 2022 as Mentoring Month in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National Mentoring Month.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Assemblymember Epstein on the resolution.

MR. EPSTEIN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I -- I want to thank the Assembly for putting this resolution in for National Mentoring Month, as people know how critical it is to be mentors for our young people around the State. Mentoring is an important part of closing the opportunity gap in our society to create pathways for people who don't have natural access to people who are mentors. Historically -- historic discrimination is a part of what we see in the need for mentoring. I, myself, continue to be a mentor to young people in our City and State. High school students, college students, young professionals (inaudible) guidance helps them in their future.

So I encourage everyone in this moment to become a mentor, to give to someone else, to show them a path forward. And I want to thank the Assembly for putting this resolution forward.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Thank you, sir.

Mr. Goodell on the resolution.

MR. GOODELL: Thank you, sir. And following on my colleague's comments, I would encourage everyone not only to be a mentor to a young person, but to look for opportunities to be mentors to other adults. And looking back on my life, I am so thankful that when I first joined the law department in the county government, the head county attorney kind of took me under my wing -- under his wing and helped me immensely, as did the county executive. And when I came here to the State Assembly, Assemblyman Giglio made sure that I walked the straight and narrow path. And both my wife and I are thankful for his mentoring.

So I appreciate that we're honoring and mentioning Mentoring Month, and I urge all my colleagues to look for opportunities to mentor everyone, not just young people, but folks like me who may have been around a little bit longer. Thank you, sir.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Thank you.

On the resolution, all those in favor signify by saying aye; opposed, no. The resolution is adopted.
