12:45 P.M.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: The House will come to order.

In the absence of clergy, let us pause for a moment of silence.

(Whereupon, a moment of silence was observed.)

Visitors are invited to join the members in the Pledge of Allegiance.

(Whereupon, Acting Speaker Aubry led visitors and members in the Pledge of Allegiance.)

A quorum being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of Monday, May 29th.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Mr. Speaker, I move to dispense with the further reading of the Journal of Monday, May the 29th and that the same stand approved.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Without objection, so ordered.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Thank you, sir. To colleagues and guests that are in the Chambers, I would like to share a quote today from Elizabeth Cady Stanton. Many of you probably know the work that she's done in the Women's Suffrage Rights Movement, not just in New York State, but across America. Her words for us today, Mr. Speaker, the best protection a woman can have is courage. Again, these words from Elizabeth Cady Stanton, serving no pun intended by all the women who sit behind me who has already demonstrated enormous amounts of courage, but as well as the women who I serve with in this honorable Body who demonstrate courage everyday.

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, members have on their desk a Calendar, and we also have a debate list. And after some housekeeping and introductions, we're going to take up the following Committees: Ways and Means and Rules. These Committees are going to produce an A-Calendar which we're going to take up today on consent. We're also going to consent where we -- continue our consent where we left off last week of the new bills from the main Calendar. We're going to start with Rules Report No. 263 on page 111 [sic] and would like to go straight through to 313. Members should also take note that we're going to be taking up our Calendar resolutions at the completion of Session today, at the end of today. And there definitely is a need for a Majority Conference in Hearing Room B at the conclusion of our work today on the floor. And, Mr. Speaker, as always, I will conference with our Minority Conference to see what their needs are if they have conference needs.

That's the general outline of where we're going today, Mr. Speaker. If you have any introductions or housekeeping, now would be a great time, sir. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Thank you, Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

Yes, we do have some housekeeping.

Without objection, on a motion by Mr. Daniel Rosenthal to reconsider the substitution of Senate Bill No. 599 for Assembly Bill No. 1707, said Senate bill is recommitted to the Committee on Health, and said Assembly bill is restored to its place on the order of third reading. And on a motion by Mr. Rosenthal, the amendments are received and adopted.

For the purposes of a introduction, Ms. Hunter.

MS. HUNTER: Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise today, as we do every year, we honor women veteran. And today, I would like to, en masse, welcome and introduce the women from across New York State who are women veterans. They hail all the way from Long Island to Western New York. They come today as we stand in solidarity for Women Veteran Recognition Day, we'll do the resolution at the end of the day today. But Mr. Speaker, if you could kindly extend to them the cordialities of this House, they've come long and far, served their country with distinction and they definitely deserve the privileges of our House. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Ms. Hunter, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome these, in the words of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, courageous women here to the New York State Assembly. We extend to you the privileges of the floor. Our undying gratitude for the service that you are providing and have provided to this State, to this country, to the world. We hope that you know that you always have friends here and you are always welcome here. Thank you so very much for joining us.

They're here not just to see their favorite Assemblyman at work, but also to celebrate Danish-American Heritage Day, which we will be taking up at the end of session. As a proud Danish-American family, the Jensens, hailing from Copenhagen via Middelfart, we're very proud to welcome and celebrate that day along with my fellow Danish-American legislator, Michael Durso. MR. BROOK-KRASNY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I was about to change my last name to make it more convenient for you, but not anymore. Thank you, sir. Mr. Speaker, thank you very much for the opportunity today to make this introduction. It's my honor today to introduce Svetlana Lipyanskaya, the first female CEO of New York City Health and Hospitals, South Brooklyn Health, formerly known as Coney Island Hospital. During the pandemic when hospitals were an indispensable part of our public health strategy to defeat COVID-19, Ms. Lipyanskaya developed and implemented a campus-wide strategic master plan that allowed South Brooklyn Health to serve 875,000 New Yorkers from South Brooklyn and surrounding communities. Ms. Lipyanskaya led the recent completion of a new, brand new 11-story Ruth Bader Ginsburg Hospital, and has developed the Health and Wellness Institute that reimagines and elevates the quality of primary and specialty care services offered to its patients. She has also shepherded the creation of several lifesaving services and programs that place vital care for heart disease, heart attack and stroke close to home to our community. Throughout her tenure, Ms. Lipyanskaya has focused on aligning the hospital's mission, vision and values around access, quality and patient-centered care. She is truly a visionary, with unwavering leadership, to move South Brooklyn's health care system forward to better serve our community.

Mr. Speaker, would you please welcome Svetlana Lipyanskaya to our Chamber and award her the cordialities of the House. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Mr. Brook-Krasny, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome you here to the New York State Assembly, congratulate you on the work that you're doing in Coney Island saving the lives of our New Yorkers, taking care of the health of our New Yorkers. Mrs. Peoples-Stokes for the purposes of an introduction.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Thank you, Mr.

Speaker, for an opportunity to introduce a few people who I actually just met as I walked into the Chambers today, I wasn't surprised to see them, but I was kind of surprised because I just walked through the area where the women veterans were having lunch and to see all the women who served, and then walk into our Chambers today and see a young man who is currently serving, it just did my heart a lot of joy. So it's my pleasure, he's actually a constituent of our colleague Mr. Santabarbara, who has not arrived yet, but Mr. Tawan D. Smith is a Sergeant in the United States Army. He is a U.S. Army Recruiter. He lives in and works right around in the Capital District, he's a very active member of recruiting for the Army. Along with him, Mr. Speaker, is Emil Barber, who is a Public Affairs Outreach Volunteer Specialist for the Veterans Administration, U.S. Department of Veterans Administration. If you would please give both of these gentlemen the cordialities of our floor and welcome them to our Chambers, it would be greatly appreciated, I'm sure Mr. Santabarbara will be too, in his absence.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Mrs. Peoples-Stokes, Mr. Santabarbara, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome both of you gentlemen here to the New York State Assembly. We thank you for your service both in the Army, as well as the Veterans Administration. Please know that you're welcome here, you always have a friend in the New York State Assembly, and you have the privileges of our floor. Hope you enjoy your time with us today and your time has been successful. Thank you so very much.

Ms. Walsh for the purposes of a introduction.

MS. WALSH: Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.
Good afternoon to my colleagues. I'm very, very honored today to introduce to all of you a really dear friend of mine who was here earlier today to celebrate with Assemblymember Hunter and the other women veterans who are here today. Mary Grant, there's Mary. Mary is the President of the Capital Region Veterans Memorial, which is a town park that will be home to our legacy project. The park is going to contain grand memorials for all major conflicts to honor those who gave their lives for our nation's cause. It will include a welcome center and a veteran's cafe for all veterans and their families and public to enjoy.

What you need to know about Mary, is that not only did she serve our country, but she came back and then she's continued to serve in our community. And what she recognized is that there are individuals who returned from service who just don't have that place to be able to connect with each other, and we've talked so many times in this Chamber about the mental health needs of our returning servicemembers, and I think that Mary's work over the years as part of a team on the Capital Region Veterans Memorial is going to be a wonderful asset. It's going to be located in my district, but it's going to be serving the whole Capital District. She's a retired Colonel, New York Air National Guard Scotia with over 27 years. I can't read all of her different accolades, all I can tell you is that she's one of our hometown heroes and I'm just so very grateful that she took the time to be with us today. Mr. Speaker, would you please offer the cordialities of the House and welcome her to Albany.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Ms. Walsh, the Speaker and all the members, Mary, if I may, we welcome you here to the New York State Assembly. We extend to you the privileges of the floor. Our gratitude for the service that you provided and continue to provide for both the veterans and the State and the City and the country. Continue that work. Know you are always welcome here in the New York State Assembly and the People's House. Thank you so very much for being here.

A introduction by Mr. Goodell.

MR. GOODELL: Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to introduct -- introduce a number of special guests that we have with us today. I and Assemblyman Joe Giglio, Assemblyman Morinello, represent more than one county and more than one nation. And I am so proud and pleased to introduce a number of distinguished guests from the Seneca Nation of Indians. So on behalf of Assemblywoman Peoples-Stokes, Mr. Giglio, Mr. Morinello and myself, please welcome, Seneca Nation Councilor J.C. Seneca; Seneca Nation Councilor Tina Abrams; Seneca Nation Clerk Bethany Johnson; Seneca Nation Councilor Geraldine Huff; and Seneca Nation Councilor Odie Porter. This is a nation with a great and proud history that predates us by a conservable amount of time, many notable accomplishments, including their form of government and their association with other nations. So if you would welcome these great distinguished guests to our Chamber, I'd appreciate it. Thank you, sir.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Certainly. On behalf of Mr. Goodell, Mrs. Peoples-Stokes, Mr. Giglio, Mr. Morinello, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome you here to the New York State Assembly, extend to you the privileges of the floor. MR. BENEDETTO: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for affording me the opportunity to welcome some distinguished guests we have in the audience today. Some very special guests including President and CEO Alice Calabrese and Gerianne Puskas Vice Lollipop Farm is a true gem, located in the Fairpoint, New York area where they help rehome animals of all sorts, from dogs and cats to hens and horses. You're just as likely to find a guinea pig as a pot-bellied pig on your trip to Lollipop. And you know, Mr. Speaker, I encourage you to go on a trip to Lollipop as we are going to be out of Session in another week or so. They also offer summer camps, veterinary services, and even pet behavioral hotline so you can call to get tips on training your pet. Ms. Walsh to explain her vote.

MS. WALSH: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Very briefly. I know that this is an extender. Basically, if an individual has fallen behind in their child support payments, this bill will allow the Department of Motor Vehicles in conjunction with OTDA to suspend a driver's license of a person. I continue to be concerned though that there are individuals who they have a job and when they fall behind on their child support payments, if you pull their driver's license they can't get to work, they can't come current on their child support. I have a bill to address that, I think there might be other members who have the same idea. I really would like us to work together to try to fix this problem and to give more discretion to child support magistrates to in appropriate circumstances allow the person to keep driving in order to come current on their support. It seems to be something that both the person that's owed the money and the person owing the money would support. So I'll vote in favor of extending this, but I think that this system needs to be adjusted in some respects to help people who want to get current to allow them to continue drive and keep current. So thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I'll be in the affirmative.

Mr. Goodell to explain his vote.

MR. GOODELL: Thank you, sir. This bill would require all of our local municipalities to carry additional supplemental insurance on all of their police and fire vehicles. And while I think that's probably a good idea for our local municipalities to carry that type of insurance I think it's a mistake for us in a State to mandate the type of coverage that a local government should have. That's a decision that the local government ought to make based on their financial situation and the rules and regulations that they operate in their collective bargaining agreement. It's not something that needs another unfunded state mandate to address. So while I appreciate the desire of the sponsor to have that type of coverage, I will not support another unfunded mandate that usurps the power and the authority of the local government to make their own decision. For that reason I'll be voting against it. Thank you, sir.

Ms. Clark to explain her vote.

MS. CLARK: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be very, very brief. This is a labor of love. This bill, it's been about three years we've been working on it but really will honor Sergeant Gary Beikirch. We have very few Congressional Medal of Honor winners in the State of New York but the distinctive license plates currently does not model what we do for Purple Heart and leaves out the ever-important spouse and widow, and in this case widow, so as we move forward we're going to make sure our Congressional Medal of Honor plates are of the same line as our Purple Heart winners as well as ensure that Sergeant Gary Beikirch's wife is able to get the honor of continuing on her husband's amazing legacy and I'm so thankful for this Body getting this bill done and getting it over the finish line so thank you very much.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Mr. Jensen on the resolution.

MR. JENSEN: Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I'm proud to rise to memorialize -- memorialize -- I can't speak -- October 6th as Danish American Heritage Day in New York. With 27,000 New Yorkers claiming Danish Heritage, it makes up one-tenth of one percent of all New Yorkers and I'm very proud to be one of them. The first New Yorkers came to the New York area in 1609, with Henry Hudson, but since -- since that time New York was often the first -- first point of entry for many Danes who were immigrating to this nation including my great-grandfather who came to this country from Copenhagen from our central home in Middelfart, Denmark. A lot of people made the joke that we should've been eating danishes today. It's not a traditional Danish food. Open-faced sandwiches would've been more appropriate so the Danish-American Legislators Society, which is just meeting in my office at this point, but we'll work on that for next year. New York is also home to the Danish American Chamber of Commerce, the Danish American -- Danish Brotherhood of America, Lodge No. 325 in Malverne, Long Island in Brian Curran's district and the Danish Seamen's Church in Brooklyn in Ms. Simon's district. While we're small in numbers, certainly the Danish Americans are proud that October 6th moving forward will be a day to express and celebrate our heritage in the great State of New York. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER AUBRY: Mr. Sayegh on the resolution.

MR. SAYEGH: Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.
We often rise to commend educators in general, teachers in general.
As an administrator practically my entire life, school principal, I can tell you the work of Special Ed teachers is amazing. We don't realize that even though during the pandemic so many of our students across our State and nation fell behind academically and in their social skills as a result of the interruption of learning. And what we realize even more so is the impact the pandemic has on students with disabilities.
Students with emotional, physical, learning disabilities and others have what they call IEPs, Independent Education Plans and teachers that teach Special Education children are trained to address the independent, the individual needs of each child therefore to make sure they maximize their learning potential. So now more than ever it's time to show our appreciation and the -- and the appreciations to declare December 2, 2023 as Special Education Teacher Awareness Day and that would be in conjunction with the observance of National Special Education Day. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.
