

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2025

1:35 P.M.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: The House will come to order. Good afternoon, colleagues.

In the absence of clergy, let us pause for a moment of silence.

(Whereupon, a moment of silence was observed.)

Visitors are invited to join the members in the Pledge of Allegiance.

(Whereupon, Acting Speaker Hunter led visitors and members in the Pledge of Allegiance.)

A quorum being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of Monday, February 3rd.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Madam Speaker, I move to dispense with the further reading of the Journal of Monday, February the 3rd and that the same stand approved.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Without objection, so ordered.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Thank you, Madam Speaker. For all of our colleagues and certainly all of our guests, there are many guests in our Chambers today as there actually was in the LOB as well. You're certainly always welcome to the People's House.

I would like to share a quote with you today. This one is from George H.W. Bush. He's the senior Bush that was the 41st President of the United States, serving from 1989 to 1993. His words for us today: Nearly all Americans have ancestors who braved the oceans - liberty-loving risk takers in search of an ideal - the largest voluntary migration in the -- recorded in history. Immigration is not just a link to America's past, it's a [sic] bridge to America's future. Again, these words from former President George W -- H.W. Bush.

Madam Speaker and members, you have -- have on your desk an A-Calendar. We're going to begin by calling the following committees to meet off the floor: Ways and Means and Rules. These committees will produce an A-Calendar. And we're going to begin our work right now, Madam Speaker, by taking up Calendar resolutions on page 3, and then we will continue to consent where we left off on yesterday beginning with Rules Report No. 71, it's on page 7. No need to remind Majority colleagues that we will definitely have a need for a conference immediately following our floor work here today. And as always, Madam Speaker, we will confer with our colleagues on the other side of the aisle to determine what their needs may be. If you would now call -- well, do you have any further announcements -- I mean, introductions or resolutions?

(Brief pause)

We should call for Ways and Means first, I'm sorry. If we can call for the Ways and Means Committee first, please.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: We are announcing Ways and Means Committee meeting in the Speaker's Conference [sic] immediately. Members on the Ways and Means Committee, please make their way to the Speaker's Conference Room immediately.

We have no housekeeping, Madam Majority Leader, so we will go right into introductions.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

Mr. Steck for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. STECK: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I stand today together with Assemblymember Romero from Albany to introduce members of the Chinese Community Center, which is located in the Town of Colonie. Happy Year of the Snake. And we are very glad that Mr. Kim had educated us on that. We have here with us the President, Wei Qin and members of the Board, Brandon King, Lin Zhang and Scott Bogardus.

Founded in 1973, the Chinese Community Center has been contributing to cultural diversity for 52 years, and CCC serves everyone who is interested in Chinese language, art and culture. Their mission is to promote understanding and appreciation of the Chinese heritage that is unique, defining and precious. And I would just indicate as an aside that the Town of Colonie in my district, which is very suburban, actually has very large communities from Asia, India, Africa, the Caucasus, Nepal and throughout the Middle East. So it is a very diverse community, which people might not realize, and it's certainly -- one of the leaders of our community is the Chinese Community Center. It is my pleasure to welcome them here today, and we'd ask the Speaker to extend to them all the cordialities of the House.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Mr. Steck, Ms. Romero, and the Speaker and all the members, we welcome you, the Albany Chinese Community Center, to the Chamber, extending the privileges of the floor and hope you enjoy the proceedings today. Thank you so very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Mr. Stern for the purposes of an introduction.

(Pause)

Mr. Epstein for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. EPSTEIN: Thank you. Thank you, Madam Speaker. I would like to introduce Mae Lee. So, Mae has been a Lower East Side resident her whole life. She's really dedicated herself to our community and for social justice. She has been active in so many organizations; Chinese Progressive Association for over three decades. Been -- demonstrated her commitment on -- in our community working for decades on the Community Board, chairing the -- the Health and Human Services Committee. And I want the Chamber to welcome her on behalf of myself and Assemblymember Lee to the Chamber.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Mr. Epstein, Ms. Lee, and the Speaker and all the members of this Chamber, we welcome you and extend the privileges of the floor and hope you enjoy the proceedings today. Thank you so very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Mr. Stern for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. STERN: Thank you, Madam Speaker. It is a real pleasure to introduce Dr. Errol D. Toulon, Jr., the 67th Sheriff of Suffolk County and the County's first African-American to be elected to a non-judicial countywide office. As Suffolk County's highest-ranking law enforcement official, he continues to serve and protect the County's 1.5 million residents through innovative programs to reduce crime and recidivism. And early in his first term he reorganized departments into multi-disciplinary teams focused on corrections, intelligence gathering, gang activity and human trafficking. In line with Sheriff Toulon's commitment to rehabilitation and reducing recidivism, he launched the Sheriff's Transition and Reentry Team, known as the START Resource Center to assist justice-involved individuals reenter the community starting on Day One of incarceration. The program has become a national model for rehabilitation reentry, assisting inmates with services including employment assistance, mental health and addiction support and housing to immediately help create a better path upon finishing their sentences.

Madam Speaker, it is with great pride on behalf of all of my colleagues in the Suffolk County and Long Island delegation to welcome to our Chamber today Dr. Errol Toulon, Sheriff of Suffolk County. Would you please kindly afford him all of the cordialities of the House and the privileges of the floor.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Mr. Stern and the entire Suffolk County delegation, we welcome you, Sheriff Toulon, to the Speaker's House, to the Chamber, and extend the privileges to you of the floor and hope you enjoy the proceedings today. Thank you so very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Ms. Septimo for the purposes of an introduction.

MS. SEPTIMO: Thank you. Today we are joined by members of the LUCHA Coalition here in New York. LUCHA stands for Latinos United for Change. This Coalition is made up of Latinos serving and Latino-led organizations throughout New York. And you can see them here in the back. Latinos represent 20 percent of New York State's population -- that's about 4 million people -- but are lagging behind in many important indicators of success. And this -- these individuals are here today to make sure that we are doing everything we can to meet the needs of the Latino community here in New York, and I am especially grateful representing the South Bronx, home to many Latinos. But I hope my colleagues will take a moment to talk with folks who are really here from every corner of New York today.

So I personally want to thank them all and, Madam Speaker, if you can give them a welcome as well.

(Applause)

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Ms. Septimo, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome this very impressive group to the Chamber today, extend the privileges of the floor and hope you enjoy our proceedings today. Thank you very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Mr. Barclay for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. BARCLAY: Thank you, Madam Speaker. And let me say what a pleasure it is to see you in that chair. I have some -- two long-time friends of mine from Oswego County visiting us today. I have Kevin Caraccioli, who is an attorney but also serves as the Attorney for the City of Oswego. And I have Chelsea Giovio, who is an investigator with the City of Oswego Police Department.

So, Madam Speaker, I hope you would join me in welcoming them here today and give them all the privileges of the floor. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Minority Leader Barclay, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome our friends from Oswego to the Chamber today, extend the privileges to you, hope you enjoy the proceedings. Thank you so very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Mr. Slater for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. SLATER: Thank you very much, Madam Speaker. I'm very excited today to welcome a great group from Putnam County on behalf of myself and on behalf of Assemblymember Dana Levenberg. We are joined by the Putnam County Youth Bureau and some fantastic young leaders from Putnam County. I'm thrilled to welcome Janeen Cunningham, who is the Youth Bureau Executive Director; Kimberly Realbuto, who is the Youth Bureau Deputy Director; Dana Erickson, who is a Youth Program Specialist; and Evan Delfs, who is a Youth Program Specialist as well. Joining us today from Putnam County, the future of Putnam County, we have Alexander Romero from Brewster High School; Wade Spinelli from Carmel High School; Scotia Hartford from Haldane High School; Zyla Bumbery from Carmel High School. We have Zoe -- I know Zoe, I'm sorry if I get your name wrong -- but Zoe Juncaj from Brewster High School; and Isa DeRosa from Mahopac High School. The Putnam County Youth Bureau, Madam Speaker, provides such great opportunities, whether it's through their Youth Corps program or their mentoring program, and this year will be marking their 40th annual Youth Volunteer Service Awards ceremony. So they have spent decades helping the youth of Putnam County, and if you could, Madam Speaker, please again, on behalf of myself and Assemblymember Levenberg, extend the privileges of the House to them all and welcome them.

Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Mr. Slater, Ms. Levenberg and the Speaker, all the members here today, we welcome you, the Youth Bureau from Putnam County to our Chamber and extend the privileges to you of the floor and hope you enjoy our proceedings today. Thank you so very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Mr. Meeks for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. MEEKS: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Today I am honored to welcome students from Greece Central School District's Odyssey Academy located in Rochester, New York, who are part of the Monroe County Public Defender's Office -- Office Defenders of Tomorrow program. This program is dedicated to empowering young minds through hands-on learning in the legal system, advocacy and social justice. These students represent the future of leadership and justice, gaining invaluable experience in public service and legal defense. Their presence here in Albany for advocacy day reflects their commitment to civic engagement and the pursuit of a more just society.

Madam Speaker, I ask that you welcome our scholars to the floor and offer them all the principal -- excuse me, all the privileges offered unto the floor. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Mr. Meeks and the Speaker and all the members, we welcome you, the defenders of the folks in Monroe County today from the Odyssey Academy. We welcome you to the Chamber, extend the privileges of the floor. Thank you so very much for joining us today.

(Applause)

Mr. Colton for the purposes of an announcement -- or excuse me, introduction.

MR. COLTON: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I am very proud and honored to introduce today two leaders of organizations that have played an important part in my community. One of them, Angel Woo of the Chinese American Social Service Center, has been conducting many events in the district that have given information to people and provided services to people. One of them was the Asian Lunar New Year Parade, which took place on Sunday on 18th Avenue in my district. And the other leader, Chi Loek from UA3, that has been providing free food distributions to many people in my community and also in other communities throughout the City. And, Madam Speaker, I would ask that you welcome them to the Assembly Chambers and give them the privileges of the House.

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Mr. Colton, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome you to the Chamber, extend the privileges of the floor and hope you enjoy our proceedings today. Thank you very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Ms. Lee for the purposes of an introduction.

MS. LEE: Thank you, Madam Speaker. It is my honor to introduce Alexander Wang. In 2019, Alexander made history as the youngest person to hold an executive leadership position in New York State politics, and from that moment on he has demonstrated an unwavering dedication to public service. Through his leadership, Alexander has played a pivotal role in driving Statewide efforts to increase voter participation, ensuring that every voice is heard. He played an instrumental role in championing key initiatives to improve democratic participation in our electoral process. Beyond his policy work, Alexander has been a powerful advocate for the AAPI community. His advocacy has strengthened our democracy and empowered countless individuals to engage in civic life.

Madam Speaker, please welcome Alexander Wang to the Assembly and extend to him the privileges of the floor.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Ms. Lee, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome you back to the Chamber and extend the privileges of the floor. We hope you enjoy our proceedings, and thank you so very much for joining us. It's always a pleasure to see you. Thank you.

(Applause)

Mr. Taylor for the purposes of an introduction.

(Brief pause)

MR. TAYLOR: Thank you, Madam Speaker. There's a little delay here. I got support left and right. Thank you, my team. So listen, I -- I rise this afternoon to ask -- and with the cordialities of the House if you would welcome into this Chamber and extend the cordialities for the Columbia University students representing both the nursing, the policy health, dental and medical students here. And all of them are from my district with the exception of one, but we'll own her because she's from Brooklyn, but everybody else is from the Heights. And I will stop speaking and let you extend the cordialities of the House.

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Mr. Taylor, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome you young people from Columbia University to the Chamber. We extend the privileges of the floor and hope you enjoy our proceedings today. Thank you so very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Mr. Chang for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. CHANG: Thank you very much, Madam Speaker. This is a group from my Brooklyn community. They might be various leaders and everyday volunteers, but these are my true community in Brooklyn, Sunset Park. Even though they might be immigrants, even though they may be outside or generational in Brooklyn, but they make up the -- the fabrics [sic] of our community, and I welcome them over here. Simon Chuck [phonetic] is one of them. UA3 they're -- they do food pantry. And there is Louie Liu [phonetic] over here from BA Cops [phonetic], provides security in our community. And various other groups over here. Raymond Wong, another community leader right there raising his hand. And he is one of those community leader [sic] of the Fu Zhong Nees [phonetic] Association in there and who are recognized. And various other -- oh, Mr. Chang and Mr. Liu Cultural Association [phonetic]. So it's different social services agencies, community service agencies, volunteer, food pantry all (inaudible) in this group. And I -- Madam Speaker, I welcome this Chamber for -- for our group, ma'am. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. On behalf of Mr. Chang, the Speaker and all the members, we welcome you folks from Sunset Park community members in Brooklyn. We welcome you to the Chamber, extend the privileges of the floor and hope you enjoy our proceedings today. Thank you so very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Madam Speaker, would you please call the Rules Committee to the Speaker's Conference Room?

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Rules Committee to the Speaker's Conference Room. Members of the Rules Committee, please make your way immediately to the Speaker's Conference Room.

(The Clerk recorded the vote.)

Ms. Walsh to explain her vote.

MS. WALSH: Thank you, Madam Speaker. So, I think that this bill is a really great example of a chapter amendment that really tracks the debate that we brought last year on the original legislation. So I'm really glad to see that it has been more narrowly defined as to the individuals that will be eligible to attempt to make a claim of mental ill -- injury that would be eligible for Workers' Compensation coverage. I think that's a much more reasonable way of looking at it.

I'm very pleased with the chapter and I'm happy to cast my vote in the affirmative. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Ms. Walsh in the affirmative.

Are there any other votes? Announce the results.

(The Clerk announced the results.)

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: On a motion by Ms. Reyes, the Senate bill is before the House. The Senate bill is advanced.

Read the last section.

THE CLERK: This act shall take effect immediately.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: The Clerk will record the vote.

(The Clerk recorded the vote.)

Ms. Giglio to explain her vote.

MS. GIGLIO: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Well, the bill is definitely better than it was last year. I am still concerned about minors being trained on how to deescalate an irate customer. The policy on that training doesn't currently exist, so we don't see what it is and whether or not these children are gonna be forced to engage if there's an irate customer or if someone is coming into the store that maybe has a mental illness or maybe is stealing, maybe is robbing the store. We don't know what the training looks like because the policy doesn't exist. Our law enforcement and our emergency services are water-boarded every day with training. Training from bullying, diversity, inclusion, cultural awareness, and they don't know how to deal with the mentally ill and with people that are stealing in the stores. And -- and the Governor in the State of the State said she gonna put cops in every subway train to stop people from committing crime and from hurting other people, and -- and they don't know how to deal with it. So my concern is for the minors, and I hope that the Commissioner of the Department of Labor is listening because I hope that this training and this policy is not going to be telling minors to engage with people when they come into a retail store and they are either stealing or they are irate or they are trying to rob the cash register. I hope that the instruction in that training will be to run and go behind a locked door and let that person take whatever they want. But in no way, shape or form I -- I think a minor should be engaging with an irate customer in a retail setting.

So I am going to be supporting the bill this year with the rest of my colleagues, but I still have these unanswered questions and I'm hoping that the policy that the Commissioner of Labor lays out will protect our minors and will protect all retail workers. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. Ms. Giglio in the affirmative.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Madam Speaker, members have on their desks an A-Calendar. I'd like to move to now advance that A-Calendar.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: On a motion by Mrs. Peoples-Stokes, the A-Calendar is advanced.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Thank you so much, ma'am.

Do you have any further housekeeping or resolutions?

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: We have a number of resolutions before the House. Without objection, these resolutions will be taken up together.

On the resolutions, all those in favor signify by saying aye; opposed, no. The resolutions are adopted.

(Whereupon, Assembly Resolution Nos. 77-89 were unanimously approved.)

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Thank you. Madam Speaker, would you inform all Majority members that there will be a -- a conference in the Speak -- in Hearing Room C immediately following the close of Session? Hearing Room C.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Majority conference after adjournment of Session, Hearing Room C, immediately following Session.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Thank you. I now move that the Assembly stand adjourned and that we reconvene at 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, February the 5th, tomorrow being a Session day.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: On Mrs. Peoples-Stokes' motion, the House stands adjourned.

(Whereupon, at 2:39 p.m., the House stood adjourned until Wednesday, February 5th at 10:00 a.m., that being a Session day.)
