10:18 A.M.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: The House will come to order.

Good morning, colleagues.

In the absence of clergy, let us pause for a moment of silence.

(Whereupon, a moment of silence was observed.)

Visitors are invited to join members in the Pledge of Allegiance.

(Whereupon, Acting Speaker Hunter led visitors and members in the Pledge of Allegiance.)

A quorum being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of Wednesday, May 28th.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Madam Speaker, I move to dispense with the further reading of the Journal of Wednesday, May the 28th and that the same stand approved.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Without objection, so ordered.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Thank you so much. And good morning, colleagues and guests that are in the Chambers.

I do have a quote that I would like to share with you today. This one is coming from Winston Churchill, former British statesman and military officer for the United Kingdom between 1940 and 1955 [sic]. His words for us today: Success is not final, failure is not fatal: It is the courage to continue that counts. Again, these words from the late, great Winston Churchill.

Madam Speaker, members have on their desks a main Calendar. Before any housekeeping and/or introductions we're going to be calling for the Rules Committee to meet in the Speaker's Conference Room. This Committee is going to produce an A-Calendar which we are going to take up today.

We'll also be calling for the follow -- following committees to meet as well: Science and Technology, Tourism and Ways and Means. There may be a need for additional activity to be -- to be announced regarding our floor activities. If so, Madam Speaker, we will advise at that moment.

So that's the general outline of where we're going today. If you could now please call the Rules Committee to the Speaker's Conference Room.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Rules Committee to the Speaker's Conference Room. Committee members on Rules, please go to the Speaker's Conference Room.

We have no housekeeping this morning, but several introductions. We're going to get started with Mr. Steck for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. STECK: Thank you very much, Madam Chair.

I rise first to welcome Ava Bachta. She is a sophomore from Shaker High School in the Town of Colonie, the largest part of my Assembly District. She won the State skiing championship in slalom and alpine combined, as well as second place in giant slalom. And she is joined here by her mother.

I was joking with her earlier that when I was in school, my father who was a football, basketball and baseball coach would not let me ski for fear that I might injure myself and not play his sports. But it's a tremendous accomplishment to do that at such a young age, and I'm looking forward to her having a very fine career in skiing.

In addition today, I have the Boys State AA [sic] basketball team champions, also from Shaker High School. They had a tough 55-50 win over Section 8's Port Washington School. My apologies to Member Norber. But it's good to see Upstate defeat Long Island. The team is joined by their parents and coaches. And I give a special shout-out to Coach Aric Kucel and Team Manager Devon Trey Evans. Having grown up in a coach's house, I know the amount of time that goes in to prepare a team to reach this level of success. So I deeply appreciate what he has accomplished.

We have assistant coaches Vince Medici, Brian Hooks, Ryan Deguire, Matt Plew, and Austin Kendrick. The team members here today are Kwame, Melvin, Kieran, Bless, Will, Tye, Brandon, Vincent, Marcelin, Sam, Anthony and Ryan. Again, they worked together. I've seen the films, it's amazing. It was a total team concept, and maybe we can get the Knicks to do that and come back from their series where they're behind.

Anyway, congratulations to the Shaker Blue Bison, and I'd ask the Speaker to extend to them all the cordialities of the House.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

On behalf of Mr. Steck, the Speaker and all members, we congratulate and welcome Ava, our alpine skiing State champion from Shaker High School. Also, congratulations to the high school boys basketball AAA State champions. Welcome, all, to our Assembly Chamber. We extend the privileges of the floor to you. Hope you enjoy our proceedings today. Congratulations. Continued future success. Thank you so very much for joining us today.

(Applause)

Mr. Bendett for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. BENDETT: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

On behalf of myself and Assemblymember Didi Barrett, today I rise with great pride to recognize the Chatham High School Varsity Boys Baseball Team for their incredible achievement, capturing the New York State Public High School Class C championship on June 8, 2024 at Mirabito Stadium with a thrilling 11-5 victory over Burke Catholic, the Panthers secured not just a State title, but their third consecutive championship, setting a New York State Section II record. This season they posted an outstanding 24 and 4 overall record, and over the past three years an extraordinary 76 and 7.

This level of excellence is no accident. Under the leadership of head coach Scott Steltz and his dedicated coaching staff, these young athletes have shown remarkable dedication, teamwork and sportsmanship. They've not only made their families, school and community proud, but they've set an inspiring example for youth all over our State.

Madam Speaker, please join me in congratulating the players, the coaches, and the entire Chatham community on this remarkable achievement. Go Panthers.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: On behalf of Mr. Bendett, Ms. Barrett, the Speaker and all members, we welcome the Chatham Baseball Team to our Assembly Chamber. Congratulations to you on being in the Class C champions. We could have used a couple of you last night at our baseball game. Welcome you to the Chamber, extend the privileges of the floor to you. I hope you enjoy our proceedings today. Thank you for joining us, and congratulations again to you.

(Applause)

Mr. Tague for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. TAGUE: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

I rise today. My fellow colleagues, it's a true pleasure to introduce my guests to the Chamber today. The Berne-Knox-Westerlo Boys High School Basketball Team just completed their season with a Class C State championship victory; the final act in their undefeated season, 26 and 0. Their perfect record gets to be cemented in history as this is also the first championship team in the history of the program. The Bulldogs of BKW played their hearts out this year, showcasing an athletic prowess unmatched by their peers.

Head Coach Andrew Wright guided his team of champions to the finish line with the help and support of Assistant Coaches Chris Brown, Nate Krinsky, George Martin, John Dwyer, Manager Filo Pray, along with Athletic Director Thomas Galvin and statistician Barb Haverly. And, of course, the athletes.

are forever known as BKW's first champions.

Madam Speaker, please extend the privileges of the floor to these exemplary athletes and their coaches.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: On behalf of Mr. Tague, the Speaker and all members, we welcome you, State Champions from the Berne-Knox-Westerlo School District. Congratulations on your 26 and 0 perfect record for the season. We extend the privileges of the floor to you for our State Chamber and the Assembly. Hope you enjoy our proceedings today. It is amazing to have so many champions in our Chamber today. Thank you so very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Mr. McDonald for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. MCDONALD: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Today I rise to recognize and celebrate the extraordinary accomplishments of two different groups of young athletes from the East Greenbush School District, otherwise known as Columbia High School.

First I want to recognize and congratulate Maya Kelly, Kaitlin Bogucki, Molly Simmons and Ava Weiss on capturing the New York State Public High School Athletic Association Championship in the 4x400 relay on March 8th of this year. Their winning time of three minutes and 54.99 seconds not only secured a State title, but also set a new school record and marked the third-fastest time in Section II history. Their teamwork and determination exemplify what student athletes can achieve.

Next I want to recognize Bella Satalino, who made history by winning the New York State Public High School Association Girls Wrestling Championship in the 138 pound weight class on February 27th of this year. Isabella completed -- get this -- an undefeated 42 and 0 season, the first in her school's history. And her dominance on the mat is a testament to her discipline and resilience.

Madam Speaker, these young women demonstrating both speed in one instance and strength in the other, show far how -- show how hard work and perseverance can take you and how far it can take you.

I ask this Body to join me in congratulating them, their coaches, their families who are here today, and Columbia High School for these outstanding achievements. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: On behalf of Mr. McDonald, the Speaker and all members, we welcome more champions, and congratulations for the track relay and also wrestling. Strength and speed, you got that right. I welcome you to our Chamber, extend the privileges of the floor to you. Thank you for joining us today. Congratulations, and keep winning. Thank you very much for joining us.

(Applause)

Ms. Woerner for the purposes of an introduction.

MS. WOERNER: Thank you, Madam Speaker, for allowing me to join the introductions today because it is clearly champions day here in the New York State Assembly. And I am thrilled to have the opportunity to introduce to you Shayla Byrne. Shayla is the New York State High School Grand -- Giant Slalom champion from South Glens Falls High School. She won her race in under three minutes, and was seconds ahead of the nearest competitor.

It is -- you know, skiing is one of those sports that it takes an incredible amount of dedication. Shayla is on the mountain several times a week, all day long, training to perfect her sport. It is truly a matter of dedication and perseverance because, man, it's cold on those mountains.

As a two -- two athlete [sic] student, Shayla is about to graduate and go on to Grove City College where she will be playing lacrosse for the college.

I'm incredibly proud of Shayla's accomplishments and, Madam Speaker, if you will offer her all of the cordialities of the House it would be my pleasure. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

On behalf of Ms. Woerner, the Speaker and all the members, welcome, our champion Shayla Byrne. It's -- giant slalom is no easy feat, so congratulations to you on your record-setting time. We welcome you to the Chamber, extend the privileges of the floor to you. Wish you continued success in your two-sport endeavors. Thank you so very much for joining us today.

(Applause)

Ms. Levenberg for the purposes of an introduction.

MS. LEVENBERG: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

I rise to welcome members of my community who will be participating in some of the AAPI Heritage Month activities today. Susheel Kaushik and his children; his son Vinay and daughter Shobha Kaushik are with us today in the Chamber, and I am so honored to have them here.

Susheel has served as the President of the Helena Kaushik Education Foundation in Westchester, New York, as well as the Chairman of the Mrs. Helena Kaushik Women's College in Malsisar, India since 2014. The College was founded in 1998 by Mr. Kaushik's brother, the late Dr. Surendra Kaushik, and is named after Mr. Kaushik's sister-in-law, the late Helena Kaushik.

The college in India strives to prepare young women in India to achieve excellence in all their endeavors. They help them to be visionary and effective leaders in their chosen professions and vocations in the service of their communities, India and the world.

I am so pleased and proud to introduce my wonderful guests this morning from Briarcliff [sic], New York and beyond, and please -- please extend all of the cordialities of the House to them.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: On behalf of Ms. Levenberg, the Speaker and all members, we welcome you, sir, and your family to our Assembly Chamber, extending the privileges of the floor to you. Thank you for all of the distinguished work that you have been doing in the community. I'm sure your resume is far more impressive than Ms. Levenberg had communicated to us. Thank you so very much for your family joining us today. Thank you.

(Applause)

Mr. Maher for the purposes of an introduction.

MR. MAHER: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

I am excited this morning to introduce long-time Orange County resident, business and community leader Pete Berman, as well as his daughter Molly Berman.

Pete has a number of professional certifications, associations and awards; too many to attribute in this two-minute introduction. He is the force behind several successful companies in many diverse industries. He's personified locally and throughout the region the entrepreneurial spirit. He started his career as a third-generation builder and project manager, working with a company started by his grandfather as a founding partner of Hope Ventures, LLC. So we thank you for -- for going into that profession. We hope you enjoy our proceedings today. Thank you so very much for joining us.

MR. STERN: Thank you, Madam Speaker. And good morning to all of my colleagues.

Madam Speaker, it's really my personal privilege today to welcome Doug Geed and his daughter Kierin to the floor of the New York State Assembly.

Doug Geed was an original member of News 12 Long Island when the station debuted in 1986, and is one of the most recognizable faces and personalities throughout the Long Island region. During his esteemed tenure, Doug won ten New York Emmy Awards, a Long Island Journalist of the Year Award, and was inducted into the Long Island Journalism Hall of Fame. He retired in 2023 after decades of award-winning journalism, including creating and hosting the popular "East End" show where he highlighted the essential stories of the commercial fishermen and farmers that are so important to the culture and the economy of Long Island.

Doug is a 40-year husband, a father of three, and a proud grandpa. He's here today with his daughter Kierin, a student at New York Law School, who has a passion for government and is visiting us at the New York State Capitol for the very first time. Today the New York State Legislative Black Task Force proudly welcomes 26 students and their teaching assistants from the New York Legal Educational Opportunity Program to the New York State Capitol.

The New York LEO Program is a transformative initiative that supports first-generation law school students of color from across New York State as they prepare to begin their legal education. So, good morning or afternoon or whatever it is to -- to our colleagues today. I'm joined by a wonderful group of fourth grade students from the Shatekon Elementary School, which is part of the Shenendehowa School District in Clifton Park, New York, part of the 112nd Assembly District that I'm honored to represent.

Fun fact for all of you if you don't know what Shatekon means. It is an Iroquoian word specifically of the Mohawk origin meaning a balanced life, which I know that we all aspire to.

So these two classes that are here today alongside their parents, chaperones and teachers Mrs. Gould and Mrs. Smith, have been down to the Assembly today in the Capitol to learn about State government because it's fourth grade, and the historic New York State Capitol building.

So happy to have them join us today, and if you would, Madam Speaker, afford to them all the cordialities of the House and welcome them to the People's House.

ACTING SPEAKER KASSAY: Absolutely, Ms. Walsh.

Thank you, students, for visiting today and looking into the balanced life, learning about government and also helping us learn what's important to you all.

Mr. Bores to explain his vote.

MR. BORES: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

No campaign worker or volunteer or lawyer or candidate should be forced to miss a holiday with their family just because of an accident of -- of our calendar. And when we moved some of our voting, our primaries up, we cause an occasional conflict with a number of different holidays. And this Body, I'm proud to say, has always made sure to adjust that calendar so that no one is taken away from their families.

So this bill adjusts for a conflict with Passover. It's actually the exact same day's conflict that happened in 2023, an exact copy of the bill that we passed with strong bipartisan support then. And I'm happy that we are always thoughtful for everyone, not just those of us who are serving and running, but all of the volunteers, all the campaign workers, that they aren't taken away from the Seder or taken away from their family, and that we can still promote democracy while respecting everyone's personal celebrations.

I'm also happy to report that as far as I know, no such conflict exists again until 2031. So great job, we'll see you all in 2030 to fix this.

Madam Speaker, I vote yes.

ACTING SPEAKER KASSAY: Thank you. Mr. --
Mr. Bores in the affirmative.

(The Clerk recorded the vote.)

Mr. McDonald to explain his vote.

MR. MCDONALD: Thank you, Madam Speaker. And I want to thank my colleagues for their support for this legislation.

Quite simply, this bill recognizes what we know that many women-owned businesses and minority-owned businesses work hard every -- each and every day to run their businesses according to the rules of the program. Unfortunately, over the past several years -- and I thank my colleague from the other side of the aisle here in the Capitol Region, it came to my attention that there are women- owned businesses, particularly in the Capitol Region, that the women that have the boots on the ground, running the business day in and day out, when their certification expires they're put through a hell of a rigamarole in regards to proving that they're still running the business. This bill says, You know what? If they've been doing their job, they continue to operate, and at the same token it's a message to SED -- ESD, excuse me, Empire State Development, we want to work with you, but let's work on changing the program dynamics. Let's respect the fact that women are running their businesses and at the same token, put more people out in the field to go after the bad actors.

So I want to thank my colleague for bringing it to my attention, and it's been a pleasure to work on it and I'm glad to finally see it hitting the floor.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Mr. McDonald in the affirmative.

Ms. Walsh to explain her vote.

MS. WALSH: Thank you Madam Speaker.

And so if I could just chime in for a minute. I am so grateful to see that this bill is getting across the finish line. This is a really good bill. There's no reason if a MWBE business that has gone through that whole process of getting certified should be having such difficulty to get recertified. I mean, if there's -- I think all this does is it creates a rebuttable presumption that if you went through all those hoops before and you were certified, that upon recertification we're gonna start from a place that you should be recertified subject to other facts coming to light that maybe, say that there's a problem or that you shouldn't be.

So it's important. I think that there are a number of things like this that I really think that we, as a Body, should be looking at to try to make this MWBE program function better, more efficiently and in a fairer way for all the people, all the women and minorities that want to be a part of it.

So I'm very, very happy to support it, and I do want to thank my colleague for helping it get across the --the finish line.

Thank you. I'll be in the affirmative.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

Ms. Walsh in the affirmative.

Ms. Giglio to explain her vote.

MS. GIGLIO: Thank you, Madam Speaker. And I'd also like to thank the sponsor for getting this across the finish line.

I have heard many times within my district of people trying to get recertified in the middle of construction contracts and basically telling the larger company that employs them on a specific project that their certification has expired and they're having difficulty renewing it. This is very much needed. And the presumption of innocence before proving somebody guilty and just decertifying them is definitely the way of New York. So I appreciate it for all the minority- and women-owned businesses in the State of New York that utilize this program, and I'm sure that the contractors that are doing state's work and good work are appreciating -- appreciating it, also.

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I'll be in the affirmative.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Ms. Giglio in the affirmative.

Mr. DiPietro to explain his vote.

MR. DIPIETRO: Thank you, Madam Speaker, just quickly. I'm in the negative. While it's a good bill and it means well and I do -- I've been involved with apprentice programs, the one thing about this bill is it also covers subcontractors. And a lot of times in my district when you're working on a big project, some of the subcontractors are two- or three-man small businesses that come in for certain things, and I don't think it should be mandated of them to be into an apprenticeship program.

So for that reason I am -- and a few others, I'm gonna be in the negative. Thank you.

(Pause)

Ms. Walsh for the purposes of an introduction.

MS. WALSH: Thank you very much, Madam

Speaker.

So, earlier today I introduced all of you to some fourth graders who were visiting the Capitol. Now I would now like to introduce to you some 12th graders, some high school seniors, from the Ballston Spa High School who are students in the AP U.S. Government and Politics course, alongside their teachers Daniel Hornick and Rick Hengsterman. They're here -- many of them, I was glad to hear, had been to the Capitol before, but they're here today to watch us work a little bit and to have some questions answered. They always ask very good ones. And we're also honoring Mr. Hengsterman today as he retires from a distinguished teaching career including over 25 years with the Ballston Spa Central School District where he has taught U.S. History, Sociology and Economics.

I think that the -- the AP program, especially at Ballston Spa High School, is excellent and I think we're probably seeing some future leaders here today. They will certainly be better and more informed and engaged citizens. And I just was hoping, Madam Speaker, that you could please welcome them to the People's House and afford to them all the cordialities.

Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: On behalf of Ms. Walsh, the Speaker and all members, we welcome you scholars to the People's House and extend the privileges of the floor to you. Congratulations on your longstanding tenure as well. We hope you enjoy our proceedings. One day one of you or many of you may be here in our Assembly Chamber, so hopefully you'll get a good civics lesson here today. Thank you so very much, all of you, for joining us today.

Ms. Walsh to explain her vote.

MS. WALSH: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

So, as many of you know, in my previous work I worked with CPS and foster care as an Assistant County Attorney, and representing children that have to make that difficult move to a foster home or a -- a different foster care situation. And all too many times, I saw sometimes very young children, and it was very sad seeing them have to move their belongings from one place to the other in, you know, black garbage bags or just in boxes. And this program, it will have a cost to it. I think some -- some of us maybe in our districts, I know I had thought about doing some kind of a special community project to help provide luggage to kids in foster care. To have it formalized like this, it is -- it is gonna cost money for OC -- OCFS to do this. But, you know, I feel like in the -- in the grand scheme of things of a $254 billion budget, I think that this amount of money is very well-spent and I think it'll do a lot to try to raise up kids that are going through a really tough time.

So I'm very happy to support it, and I want to thank the sponsor for bringing it forward. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

Ms. Walsh in the affirmative.

Mr. Hevesi to explain his vote.

MR. HEVESI: Thank you, Madam Speaker, and thank you to my colleague for that. I really do appreciate it.

I rise to commend a young lady named Sophie Vachona. This was her idea. And Sophie has used her experience not only being homeless, but then as a foster care youth, to turn this idea into reality. It's about to pass both Houses, which means with one signature -- and it's a small amount of money; $200,000 will provide 13,000 kids with the luggage they need.

So credit to Sophie, and thank you to all my colleagues for voting in the affirmative. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Mr. Hevesi in the affirmative.

Mr. Eachus -- Eachus to explain his vote.

MR. EACHUS: Thank you. And I want to thank the sponsor for it and the prior comments by my colleague on the other side. Having already stated that I had 13 foster brothers and sisters over my lifetime, it is absolutely true that many of them show up with their clothes and belongings in garbage bags and -- and just sometimes only in their hands. This will make them feel much more worthwhile. It will make them feel more at home. And of course it also will help with their organization, to some degree. So for this small amount of money it is absolutely worth it.

Again, thank you, the sponsor, for having this and I appreciate it. I'm in the positive.

Mr. Zaccaro to explain his vote.

MR. ZACCARO: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

As many of us here know, parenting can be an incredible, challenging journey, and even with all of the resources at our disposal. Unfortunately, many families in the communities I represent face significant hurdles that if left unaddressed can lead to dire consequences.

Home visiting programs are vital in supporting families and enhancing outcomes for children, especially those grappling with issues such as poverty, substance abuse or mental health challenges. These remarkable programs provide essential assistance to parents, empowering them to create healthier and safer environments for their children. Ultimately, they foster positive outcomes in child health, family stability, and school readiness. Moreover, home visiting programs present a compelling economic case. By investing in these initiatives, we can significantly reduce the costs associated with social welfare, mental health services and juvenile corrections. And this isn't just an investment in the well-being of our children, it's an investment in the economic future of our entire State. And by increasing access to home visiting programs, we affirm our commitment to one of our most important responsibilities as public servants, and that is to take care of New York's children and their families.

And so, Madam Speaker, I proudly vote in the affirmative and I encourage my colleagues all to do the same. Thank you so much.

Ms. Walsh to explain her vote.

MS. WALSH: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

So, we already, as a Legislature, have mandated training for the police to learn better how to interact with individuals who have autism spectrum disorder or developmental disabilities. What this bill does is it adds specifically mandated training as far as how and when to apply force and how to deescalate situations involving people with autism spectrum disorders or individual developmental disabilities. And I think that that is a really good idea.

As the parent of a now 32 year old, even something as -- as we would consider relatively minor as a traffic stop, is very anxiety-producing as a parent and I've heard other members talk about having to talk to their kids about what to do if they are pulled over, or if they are -- are interacting with law enforcement. And that's something that -- those of us who have kids on the spectrum also deal with. We have to -- we have to really preset and really educate through it. So, I think to have members of law enforcement that are also going to be given some pointers on what to do and kind of what not to do, or what will make things escalated and what may potentially deescalate, I think it's a really good thing. So, I'm very happy to support this bill. Thank you.

THE CLERK: Assembly Resolution No. 613, Mr. O'Pharrow.

Legislative Resolution memorializing Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim May 22, 2025, as Maritime Day in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National Maritime Day.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Mr. O'Pharrow on the resolution.

MR. O'PHARROW: Thank you, Madam Speaker, colleagues, and guests. I'm gonna try to be brief, I know we're all trying to get up out of here.

I'm proud to join in recognizing May 22nd as Maritime Day here in New York, in line with our national observance. Today holds a real meaning, not just in honoring Maritime Day, but the industry in -- in totality. But in remembering the people behind it, from the historic voyage of the Steamship Savannah in 1819, the incredible bravery of over 250,000 merch-marinas -- mariners, who served in World War II, many of whom made the ultimate sacrifice with their life. Our maritime history is deeply tied to our nation's strength and resilience.

Even today, our waterways remain a vital part of our economy. Merchant mariners help move goods safely across the globe, support domestic trade and keep our ports safe, including those here in New York; running strong because their work is not always in a spotlight, but it is absolutely essential.

So today, I want to thank you personally, all the mariners, to say, we all thank you. And even every tugboat, every port worker who keeps our industry going, your service, in both times of peace and conflict, does not go unnoticed. And it's our honor to officially recognize your contributions. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

Mr. Chang on the resolution.

MR. CHANG: Yes. I'd like to thank the sponsor here.

I'm a graduate from SUNY Maritime College. I guess, I'm the only one in this Body who graduated from that school, and as a 24-year -- as a Naval Officer. So that's lend credence on Maritime. And I've been in the industry, in -- in the global logistics and my main specialty is -- is ocean freights. So -- so, the industry -- I've traveled all over the world -- is also in maritime trading. New York City was once a maritime port city that started this -- this country as well.

So, as this industry is decreasing in -- in New York and going to other -- other states, but we have to -- we have to make sure that our maritime business is maintained as well. It's a old industry. Its -- its history based in Greeks time about maritime trade. And I'm thankful for -- for the sponsor of reminding the maritime trade.

And some more history, too. Albany is based on -- on every canal that linked trade to Canada. So, it's a maritime trade itself, so we can't forget about this history or -- or it wouldn't be Albany as it is today.

And thank you to the sponsor for this -- for this resolution. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

On the resolution, all those in favor signify by saying aye; opposed, no. The resolution is adopted.

THE CLERK: Assembly Resolution No. 619, Ms. Lee.

Legislative Resolution memorializing Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim May 2025, as Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month in the State of New York.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Ms. Lee on the resolution.

MS. LEE: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Today I rise to honor and celebrate AAPI Heritage Month, a time to recognize the contributions that AAPI communities have made to New York and to our country. From the workers who laid track on the Transcontinental Railroad, building the very foundation of our nation's infrastructure, to the small businessowners who open their doors early and close them late, who are the heart of neighborhoods across our State. From scientists, doctors, artists, and teachers, to labor organizers, nonprofit leaders and public servants. And yes, to those who stand in chambers like this; elected to serve our communities with pride and purpose.

Asian Americans have been part of the American story for generations. But we also know that story includes struggle; the fight to be recognized, to be counted and to belong. We remember Wong Kim Ark, who took his case all the way to the Supreme Court to affirm a truth that should never have been questioned; that children born in this country, regardless of their parents' nationality, are citizens of the United States. His case laid the foundation for birthright citizenship, a cornerstone of who we are as a country.

We remember Fred Korematsu, who bravely resisted the incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II, fighting against the injustice of the Alien Enemies Act, the very same law that is still being invoked today to detain and dehumanize immigrants.

In these turbulent times when civil rights are under attack and communities face scapegoating and violence, we must draw strength from our history and from each other. Today's resolution is not just symbolic. It is a message to our neighbors, to our children, and to ourselves, that we are proud New Yorkers. We are not guests in this House. We are builders of it. We belong here. So, let this month be a celebration and a call to action. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

Mr. Chang on the resolution.

MR. CHANG: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Thank you for the sponsor for this bill, recognition of the Asian Pacific Islander Heritage Month.

A hundred years ago, my father came to this country. And -- and I was born in Chinatown in the '60s. I'm the product of the Chinese Exclusionary Act [sic], when it was lifted in 1943, during the height of World War II when they needed soldiers. And with that uplift with that Act, it -- at that time it was terrible. That only 105 Chinese could able immigrant per year, 105. Terrible.

So -- and then further on, in late '50s and '60s when the Act was finally -- totally lifted, then it allows my father to -- to travel back to China to -- to marry my mother. And then that's how I was created. Because of that atrocity, we learned our lessons. But, certainly, there's more lessons to be learned. Not necessarily Chinese, but other -- other ethnic discriminations still -- still exist.

But anyway, is -- the Asian is a growing population right now. Growing into double digits or triple digits year and year -- year in and year out. And we're growing in influence in both politically, financially and economically. But, I recognize that this State has been very broad and very encompassing for our heritage.

And thank you for -- for the sponsor for this recognition of this bill. Thank you very much.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

Mr. Dais on the resolution.

MR. DAIS: I'd like to thank the sponsor for this bill, Member Lee, on the Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage.

Part of the reason why I'm standing up, you might look at me, might not know, but I grew up what I call infusion household. My brother and I have different mothers but we were raised by my father and my mother. But my brother is a quarter Japanese. His mother was born in Japan. His grandmother was born in Japan. She just passed away, actually, last year. She married a Black Marine in -- in Japan, who was -- served in World War II. And, so, my entire life I've always -- I've been blessed to have the experience of the Japanese culture within my own household. And my nephews, to this day, also had that experience. And my youngest nephew was able to go to Japan for the first time last year to meet family and -- the family in Japan.

And there's also a tie between the Asian community and the Black community, specifically when it comes to civil rights. As mentioned before, we had Tape v. Hurley, Lum v. Lum -- Lum v. Rice which were predeceasing cases that led to Brown v. Ed -- Ed verse Brown -- I'm sorry, Brown v. Board of Ed, which led to the desegregation of schools in the South. Because there was two cases, one in Mississippi and one in California, which the court -- the state courts basically allowed segregation amongst equal -- separate but equal. And so if not for those cases, we might not have been able to build up the legal caseload so that we could overturn segregation in courts. And I think it's important that we continue to have a -- a merge of consciousness and understanding between the Asian and Black communities, that there's always been this attachment. And I want to make sure we can continue to work on that. Especially with economics, education cannot fight against (indiscernible) work together.

I'm part of that -- happy to be part of the AAPI conference this week, and I hope it's going to be a -- a great success. And I'll be voting in the affirmative for this resolution. Thank you.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

Legislative Resolution commemorating the 33rd anniversary of Queens LGBTQ Pride -- Pride Parade on June 1, 2025.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Ms. González-Rojas on the resolution.

MS. GONZÁLEZ-ROJAS: Thank you, Madam Speaker.

I rise today with deep pride to sponsor a resolution recognizing the 33rd anniversary of the Queens Pride Parade taking place this Sunday, June 1st, in Jackson Heights; a neighborhood I am deeply proud to represent.

I am grateful for the vision of the founders, former Council member Danny Dromm and Maritza Martinez, that has made this powerful and anticipated annual celebration such a wonderful event.

This year I have the tremendous honor as serving as one of the Grand Marshals alongside by colleague Assemblymember Cruz and the extraordinary Andry José Hernández Romero. Andry's name may already be familiar to some of you. He's the honorary Grand Marshal of this year's parade and a courageous gay, asylum seeker, artist and advocate whose story has sparked a national movement for justice. Andry fled Venezuela in 2024 to escape brutal anti-LGBT persecution under the Maduro régime. But instead of finding refuge here, he was wrongfully detained and deported by the Trump Administration to El Salvador's mega prison, all based on a misunderstanding around tattoos that actually symbolize his family and culture. But now, from behind bars, Andry continues to represent the very spirit of pride. Living authentically, demanding dignity and refusing to be erased.

As we gather in Jackson Heights, a birthplace of the LGBTQ organizing and immigrant justice in Queens, we do so not just in celebration, but in solidarity. Because the fight for LGBTQ liberation and the fight for immigrant justice are one in the same. As we march, we carry Andry's name. We amplify his voice. We recommit ourselves to ensuring that no LGBTQ asylum seeker is ever abandoned or forgotten. Thank you so much.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

On the resolution, all those in favor signify by saying aye; opposed, no. The resolution is adopted.

We have a number of additional resolutions before the House. Without objection, these resolutions will be taken up together.

On the resolutions, all those in favor signify by saying aye; opposed, no. The resolutions are adopted.

(Whereupon, Assembly Resolution Nos. 624-627 were unanimously approved.)

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Madam Speaker, I would like for you to please call on our colleague, Mary Beth Walsh. As you know, that last evening there was a very spirited competition that happened. And she has a -- in fact, it happened with some injury. Some people were playing and playing hard. But Miss -- my colleague has something to offer to -- would you please acknowledge her?

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you.

Ms. Walsh.

MS. WALSH: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Thank you, Majority Leader.

Yes. So, we have just spent a very long day passing an awful lot of bills and we know that over the next nine or so days, we're gonna be doing a lot more of that. So, it was fun last night to get a chance to have a fun softball game, a little competition between the two sides of the -- the aisle here. And I was meeting with a group of kids earlier today and I said, you know, I want you to know something that, you know, if you turn on the news sometimes, you'd think that Democrats and Republicans are just out to kill each other every day, you know? And -- and you might get that sense. But I said, you know, sometimes we can really have a good time. And I think last night was one of those times. And there were injuries, I'm not gonna lie. There -- there's some very sore people here today. And thank God there was one injury that didn't turn out to be as bad as we had originally feared. But there's a lot of people with bad knees that are suffering today. I myself am feeling all right because I only played a half of an inning, so that was good. But after our last year's stinging loss to Carl's Crushers, I'm happy to report to all of you who did not know, although we've tried to make everyone know it, that this year, Barclay's Bombers did prevail by a score of 14 to 10. And more importantly -- most importantly, we were able to raise collectively $10,000 for the Food Pantry for the Capital District.

(Applause)

Which was really amazing. So, I just wanted to say that, I know that we are strictly prohibited from using really any props in the Chamber, so if you happen to notice anything that's to the left of me, it's -- it's nothing, really. But -- but we -- we will be happy to celebrate that for -- until next year so -- when we have our third annual. I think it's great -- it's a great new tradition that we started. And I'm just really glad to have had an opportunity. We're not gloating. We think that it's really -- it's really just about just a little fun competition and a chance to blow off a little steam during kind of a stressful time of the year for us and all for a great cause.

So thanks for giving me an opportunity to just report the facts. Just -- just only the facts about what was really a fun night. So, thank you very much, Madam Speaker.

ACTING SPEAKER HUNTER: Thank you. And

congratulations to you.

(Applause)

I, too, share in some of your pain as well.

Mrs. Peoples-Stokes.

MRS. PEOPLES-STOKES: Madam Speaker, I -- I don't see anything to the left of her --

(Laughter)
